

MISSING

A Dozen Duckies

Tattenhall's rural touring team have lost their itty bitty ducks!

They were last spotted heading up the High Street towards the shops and for those eagle-eyed under 12s there's a prize if you can find them.

All you have to do is write where you spot them against the number of the duck on this page, then bring it to the performance of "The Ugly Duckling" on 4th December at The Barbour Institute or hand it in to the Barbour Institute office.

If your sheet is picked out of the hat you will win an early duckie themed Christmas pressie!
